Cathedral Renovations: thank you to all who have contributed to our on-going renovations.. There is much more to be done. Our next project is to re-paint the interior of the Cathedral. In the meantime, I repeat our thanks to those who have funded and supported particular projects and improvements to our Cathedral. We are most grateful. Thank you for your responses to this notice.

Cathedral Lighting: you may have noticed improvements to lighting in some areas of the Cathedral? Many of the existing lamps (bulbs) have burnt out. To change one light bulb in the Cathedral is expensive. The bulb is cheap enough – but it's the cost of the equipment to get to it!! Normally we wait until we have to change all of the bulbs – that time is almost here!!! To quote Blessed John Henry Cardinal Newman: 'Lead kindly light amid th'encircling gloom.'
